Zero Hour was formed in early Summer 1994. All band members have an established background within the music industry, with a large roster of acts to their names. We are all professional musicians.

Usually performing as a four piece line up, we utilise sequencers where material demands it. Occasionally we employ additional musicians to enhance the line up for larger events. All our occasional musicians are fully professional, having many years experience within the music industry. Some continue to work with 'name' acts on a regular basis.

Every member of Zero Hour has huge experience playing live; we have played all over the country at over 800 events. We regularly play at numerous high profile venues. We continue to perform at all types of venues in the UK and occasionally tour in Europe.

We refuse to compromise on the quality of our sound. We provide our own P.A. system, which has been put together to specifically meet the needs of the band. This gives us total control over our performance. The P.A. specification is illustrated in the equipment page of this site. All sound and lighting equipment is provided as part of our comprehensive entertainment package.

Zero Hour have gained an enviable reputation for delivering well played classic songs with a quality sound. Our extensive range of material ensures that there is always something for everyone!

Zero Hour - the ultimate live band for your party!! Our experience and attention to detail ensures that the entertainment for your event runs like clockwork, leaving you to enjoy the fun! This, backed with our technical expertise and equipment of the highest quality, is the reason we can offer one of the best value for money entertainment packages currently available!

Zero Hour perform a wide range of material from a huge repertoire, ensuring that there is something for everyone. From rock 'n' roll to Robbie Williams, 70s disco to Kylie Minogue, all the bases are covered!

Should you require any specific material for your event (such as a first dance or corporate theme), please inform us when booking so that the songs and arrangements can be prepared by the band.

Our song list is constantly updated, with new material being added all the time. Please contact us for the very latest list.

We are able to provide professional discos with state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems. You may book our disco service with the band as part of a complete entertainment package, or as a fantastic entertainment option in its own right. Our DJs are highly experienced, with extensive music collections. Simply superb!

Zero Hour Music can hire P.A. and lighting equipment packages for private parties and corporate events with experienced and highly professional technicians and crew.
